Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

Section 509(a)(1). CFB also qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under IRC Section 170(b)(1)(a). AVZ is a single-member limited liability company which is a disregarded entity for income tax purposes.

Management has considered its tax positions in accordance with the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes and believes that all of the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. In addition, Management is not aware of any matters which would cause the Organization to lose its tax-exempt status. The Organizations's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Should the Organization ever be subject to interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits, they would be classified in management and general expenses in its accompanying financial statements. During the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Organization did not recognize any interest and penalties.

All grants are awarded based on the grantee's capacity to carry out the project, financial soundness of the organization and the specific criteria of the grant. During the current year we had two grant initiatives - Thriving Communities Grants and discretionary awards. Our Thriving Communities Grants open annually and are given to organizations and community groups working in our 5-county service area whose impact on the community compliments the Food Bank's mission to feed the hungry today, and build a healthy, hunger-free tomorrow. These awards are designed to support partners in addressing various aspects of food security, community health, social justice, and the root causes of hunger. We provided a lesser number of discretionary grant awards to partner agencies experiencing an emergency. All applications for grants are reviewed by multiple staff members. Thriving Communities Grants are awarded within a determined grant period, whereas discretionary grants are awarded as needed throughout the year. All grantees sign a grant agreement and are required to submit a report at the end of the grant period detailing project outcomes, learnings, and verifying project completion.

Sch I, Part III, Line 1

The Organization uses a proprietary software program to track receipt of non-cash grants by individuals. The State sets parameters for eligibility for certain programs which the Organization also tracks through specialized software. The Organization uses monitoring to track non-cash grants used by its agencies. This monitoring covers both requirements of the granting agency and those imposed by the Organization itself. Monitoring is logged in paper and electronic files, depending on the requirement.

that cause food insecurity and poverty. Through Avanzando LLC, we provided fiscal sponsorship and technical assistance to 8 community groups. Each of these projects is in line with CFB's mission to build healthy, hunger-free communities. We continue to engage and train people in community-building events at Las Milpitas Community Farm and at Nuestra Tierra Garden. Our Santa Cruz River Farmers Market generated over $202,622 in direct-to-consumer sales. Of that total, 42% percent consisted of Public Assistance benefits including SNAP/food stamps, Double-Up Food Bucks (SNAP-match), and Farmers' Market Nutrition Program coupons for low-income older adults and families with children. We convened the Farm-to-Institution Value Chain initiative to continue building institutional markets for local farm products, creating more than $579,000 in pre-season contracts with local farmers, and facilitating sales to institutional buyers. Through funding, technical assistance, and leadership development, we help to build resilient organizations and networks. As new leaders emerge, and new needs arise, they are better able to weather storms and maintain healthy communities.
