Market Purpose

The Santa Cruz River Farmers' Market strives to build community, foster local food businesses, and increase access to fresh healthy food for all. SCRFM's highest goal is to create a market community where everyone feels welcome and valued – especially people of color, folks using public assistance benefits, and all others who have historically been excluded from local food venues or economic opportunities because of their socio-economic status, citizenship status, or identity. SCRFM accepts public assistance benefits, including Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits and Arizona Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (AZFMNP) benefits, and works in partnership with vendors to make them easy for customers to utilize in the market space. We aim to create a supportive and thriving market space for our vendors and customers in which all people feel welcome and have space to build community.

Resource Booth Acceptance

We welcome Tucson not-for-profit organizations to table at our market who are aligned with our market's purpose and who promote and educate on topics including but not limited to: local food systems, sustainability, and community connection etc. We especially welcome those who identify in any historically marginalized groups (e.g. women, low-income, BIPOC, or LGBTQIA+).

In line with the purpose of the market priority is given to:

- organizations whose focus is on serving Tucson community members and market customers
- organizations who educate the community about the local food chain and food systems
- organizations who offer resources to underserved communities

Resource Booth applicants must complete an application form and provide supporting information and photos to be reviewed by the market advisory committee. Applications are reviewed monthly; applicants will be notified after review of acceptance or other status by Farmers' Market staff.

Please complete this form and return it to the contact information below, along with all supporting documents.
